

BAHRI

Bahri, meaning "vast like the ocean" in Arabic, pays tribute to the timeless romance and influence of the Silk Road.

Once a network of trade routes stretching across mountains, deserts, and seas, it was a path of exchange – from silk, tea, and spices moving west, to glass, gold, and horses heading east.

Though long and dangerous, travellers journeyed driven by curiosity, a thirst for discovery, and the need to explore.

We honor this spirit of adventure, symbolized by the peacock – regal and bold, with the swagger of our Silk Road forebears. Peacocking, as they say, is a bit of a pastime here.

Gobi

Vast desert landscapes blend with the rich aromas of spice, once carried along ancient trade routes.
