This spectacular beachside resort is located on the West Crescent of the exclusive Palm Jumeirah in Dubai and offers exhilarating views of the Arabian Gulf and Dubai's impressive skyline. The hotel is lavishly decorated in an elegant style reminiscent of the magnificent Ottoman era and features spectacular hand-painted ceilings and murals, crafted marble, crystal chandeliers as well as art worthy of the finest galleries.

The resort offers exquisite dining experiences, stunning guest rooms and an array of leisure activities. Guests can enjoy a day well spent at the 1km pristine beach or embark on a journey of the senses at the award-winning Talise Ottoman Spa, one of the largest, most opulent spas that the world has to offer.

Jumeirah Zabeel Saray is an iconic destination that recreates the majesty of the Ottoman era whilst offering guests unforgettable moments that are luxurious yet intimate. Be it through dining, leisure, rejuvenation or relaxation, we constantly strive to provide guests with exceptional experiences that offer the perfect mix of imaginative and exhilarating activities.

Did You Know?

- The main inspiration behind design of the hotel exterior is the city of Istanbul itself. The designs inspiration came from the Doma Baha palace (pronounced Dolma Bakhsha) in Istanbul
- It took a team of 45 interior designers to complete the interior of the resort within six months. The vision was to celebrate a return to the golden age of the Ottoman Empire
- The TUGHRA, a symbol of Ottoman power used by the Sultan as an imperial signature for government documents, can be found on the face of the building at its grand entrance
- The world's largest Bohemian crystal chandelier hangs in the central hall. It has 750 lamps and weighs 4.5 tonnes
- The grand featured water fountain at the entrance to the lobby is designed in the shape of an Islamic star and is a popular photography point for tourists and visitors to the resort
- The floor design within the lobby consists of white and black marble with 13 turquoise Ottoman stars, a dominant feature in Ottoman art
- All guest bathrooms feature unique deep sunken marble bathtubs with hand-painted domes on the ceiling. The size of the bathtubs is 106x198x49.5 cm
- Within the resort's grand imperial suite lays the golden imperial bath tub which measures: 2.68sqm, can fit approximately 20 people inside and hold 2000 litres of water
- The opulent Ottoman surroundings of the Jumeirah Zabeel Saray include silk chandeliers, Swarovski Crystal chandeliers as well as Islamic stars and pointed arches in the design with many features inspired by the Dolmabahçe Palace and Topkapi Palace in Istanbul
- The designs of the 405 rooms are a combination of European and Arabic style, with an Ottoman representation. The bed covers are made of a traditional Ottoman fabric called KEMHA and all resort rooms come with spectacular sea views or views of the iconic Palm Jumeirah
