

Art of The Bar

Taken from the name of reservoir located at the capital city of Majapahit, Trowulan, that means “ocean” in Sanskrit

During the golden age of the Majapahit era, Segaran attracted high-ranking officials and served as a distinguished venue for hosting important royal guests. These guests were treated with opulent services, indulging in splendid dishes that were presented on exquisite chinaware and gold cutlery. Drawing inspiration from Segaran’s rich history, we proudly introduce a curated mixologist beverage collection in our menu.

Using premium ingredients that were grown locally in the Nusantara soils, each beverage was thoughtfully crafted to reflect the glory of Segaran during the golden age of Majapahit.

Immerse in the royal treatment at Segaran, savoring handcrafted beverages skillfully concocted by our in-house mixologist. While others also craft outstanding beverages, our commitment to the region’s sustainable development remains unwavering. Cheers!
